letter and serving as an active trip leader in years past. The Carson-Gude Award was presented to Glenn Weisel, who has worked tirelessly over the years to upgrade lodge facilities. Finally, two life memberships were bestowed. One to Mel Stiles, for his overall service to the club over many years, and one to MaryAnn Thomas in recognition of her service in representing the club with the Eastern Pennsylvania Ski Council. Congratulations to them all!

There was no new member award presented this year... but maybe MaryAnn Thomas' words of thanks will provide inspiration for next year:

"Thank you so very much for Life Membership. It is quite an honor and to be in such good company with this year's awardees makes it even better. Buck Ridge is a great club with so much to offer. It's not a prob-

Woodbridge Lodge Annual Meeting Report

By Mel Stiles

Our annual lodge meeting was held on Wednesday, May 21, at the Springfield Masonic Hall for the second year in a row and was well attended.

Major issues discussed this year were: roofing; water pump and well; the 2008/09 budget; 2007/08 income and expenses; lodge usage and rates; the fall work party and internet use with the phone line.

The new roof proposal will be brought before the BRSC BOG at the Summer Board meeting. We are waiting for a proposal by a club member, Kevin Amey, Jerry Crow and others to complete the work this summer.

The performance of the old water pump and well at the lodge is in question, after several pump problems this winter. There was discussion about weather to fix or replace the pump and as to the need to upgrade the well to a submerged pump. The issue was tabled for now in order to gather more information.

The budget was reviewed and will be finalized and available at the summer board meeting. It was a good year for revenue at the lodge and therefore all budgeted expenses have been met. In ad-lem to do a little something to give back. Of course, there's always more to do so give it a try-volunteer. You might get an award! Thanks again. I will display my plaque proudly."

The evening's program was a presentation by Ed Sobelewski on a hiking trip to the Grand Canyon this past October with Mel Stiles and Dave and Patty Stern. Truly some spectacular hiking!

Members were reminded about the upcoming mid-summer board meeting and picnic, to be held at Ridley Creek State Park on July 20. It is open to all members; full details on page 5.

ACTIVITIES & TRIPS

SKIING

The preliminary 2008-2009 ski schedule has been finalized—check it out on page 7. To get in the mood before the snow flies, don't forget the 9th Annual Eastern Pennsylvania Ski Council Winterfest - Silent & Live Auction. It will be held on Friday, November 14, 2008 from 7:00 pm - 10:00 pm at Williamson's Restaurant in Horsham, PA. More details to come.

The 2009 EPSC Winter Carnival will be held at Killington from January 28 to February 1; see the sign up sheet on page 8 for details. The popular rail excursion to Jay Peak will again be run, scheduled to be held the end of February to coincide with Jay Peak's Mardi Gras festivities. Our western trip is planned to be at Whitefish (formerly known as Big Mountain) in northwestern Montana from March 14 to March 21, with lodging at the Kandahar Lodge. Due to airline issues, which seem to be affecting all western ski trip plans next year, details have not been finalized for this trip. For a sneak preview of what to expect, check their respective websites:

dition there are just enough funds left in the operating budget to pay early budgeted expenses during the fall before anticipated revenue is received next winter.

Lodge usage as reported by our reservations person, Joan Strachota, showed that the month of February saw the heaviest use at the lodge with December and January slightly less use. The lodge was used in March even less, which is surprising since March traditionally has some of the best snow and most pleasant weather conditions of the winter. Maybe this is an opportunity to sponsor more club trips to the lodge, and encourage more individuals to use the lodge to take advantage of the space and normally good skiing conditions? It was decided that rates should remain at the current winter/summer amounts of: $15/$7.50 for members and $20/$10 for guests.

The fall work party date to prepare for the coming ski season will be October 24 -- 26, 2008. Please mark your calendars and call Glenn Weisel to participate.

Computer use of the phone service seems to be getting out of control again, not so much as to the cost but the limitations placed on the line that limits times when people can either call in or call out. We had set a limit of no computer use until after 10pm, but 9pm seems more reasonable to me. The total time spent on the phone line from December through April was over 45 hours (2750 minutes) -- yes that's correct, 45 hours -- could you imagine talking that long on the phone, or getting a bill at home with normal rates? Actually the cost is very reasonable because we have a special local calls only rate, and therefore; the cost was only $41.97 (about $1.07 per hour) for all of those minutes.

I think there are two things that can help: first be more respectful of the time so that calls can come in and people have use of the phone to call out. The second suggestion is that anyone using a computer should keep track of their time and make a donation to the lodge in the amount mentioned above.

And don't forget the Woodbridge
Lodge makes a good summer getaway. See page 7 for a sampling of a variety of festivals and events in the area!

Kent County Spring Fling

Chestertown, Maryland

Biking can be fun, especially if there are 450 other people who also believe that riding a bike across Maryland is the way to go!

Eleven Buck Ridgers had another great year with Baltimore Bicycling Club (BBC) on their annual Kent County Spring Fling at Washington College in Chestertown Maryland. The weather cooperated like no other Memorial Day weekend - no rain, no excessive heat, wind or cold. Mel Stiles, Ed Sobolewski, and Woody Koch took the long way down by biking the 90 miles from PA to Chestertown. The rest of us, Joan Strachota, Sue Pitelli, Susan Hearn, Terri Walklett, Paula Kramp, Linda Bailey, and Lydia Hill decided to take a more civil approach by using a car and saving the biking for Maryland. But, you do what makes you happy. (I know I could never ride that distance!)

So, we stayed in the suites, rode on great trails, saw the re-enactment and the raft race, bought a few crafts, ate lots of foods, laughed and thoroughly enjoyed each others company. A big thanks to Susan for leading our group and going above and beyond by finding Linda's earring that we all thought was lost forever (except for Terri who used her connection to St. Christopher and Linda who thought it may have dropped at the raft race the day before by the bail of hay at the park - which is exactly where it was.)

If you've never come on this trip, I encourage you to think about joining us next Memorial Day weekend. But, don't think too long - sign up as soon as it opens because it fills up fast. You won't be disappointed!

Mary Ann Thomas—Photos by Ed S.

Here are comments from this year's riders:

"This year we had the best weather ever - sunny, breezy and not too hot. The rides have been great except for my sore butt. The food has been great and also the cordials and wine. Many thanks to Mary Ann and Susan." - Sue Pitelli

"The group photo was the only time we, with our bikes, were together. That's the beauty of this trip; there is something for everybody." - Joan Strachota

"Good food, great weather, great rides....great, great, great!!" - Paula Kramp and Terri Walklett

"First time and I agree with all the above." Lydia Hill

"Lover's Lane Quickie, Great Oak Landing, Waterman's, Picnic Ride, Rock Hall Ramble, Betterton Beach, and many more - so many rides to choose from, so little time! I'm sooo happy to be back on my bike this year!" - Susan Hearn

"Another amazing year with the BBC. 450 people, but all went well. Although the biking is lots of fun, the festival and raft race are a ball. As always, the company can't be beat and BBC did another outstanding job. Looking forward to next year." - Mary Ann Thomas

"I didn't think this was the best year ever, but it was as good as any year before. That's why I'm coming back next year!" - Ed Sobolewski

"Just glad that we had such great weather, smiling faces, and we got to know Linda's long-lost cousin Jerry from NJ. Woody, Ed and I had another fantastic experience riding down and back from MD thanks to the kindness of Joan to SAG for us." - Mel Stiles

"I enjoyed the down time, the 15 seconds between activities to take pause, reflect, and solve the world's problems with good friends. Next year I'm shooting for 20 seconds if Ed will let me. A great 4 days! Thanks to the Buck Ridge Club for letting me join their group." - Woody Koch

"A great weekend with super weather and tons of food. Cycling was terrific with wonderful Buck Ridge friends. I did find my long lost cousin who is now best friends with Mel and Woody (Dr. Nasty). I can see some big riding competitions coming up among the 4 of them! My pledge is to get in better shape for next year." - Linda Bailey

VERMONT Summer Festival HORSE SHOWS

Feel like horsing around? The Vermont Horseshow Summer Festival welcomes all spectators to the show grounds for six weeks from July 9 thru August 17, Wednesday thru Sunday each week. Watch the horses and athletes, shop the onsite boutiques, or plan to have lunch and a drink. Admission is only $5 per day. The festival is located on the Harold Beebe farm in East Dorset, north of Manchester, VT. For complete details, visit the web site: www.vt-summerfestival.com/

For more family oriented fare, the Bondville Fair, held from August 22 thru 24, is the oldest continuous fair in Vermont. This year the fair is celebrating its 210th year! Unlimited, FREE midway rides, live entertainment and track events all for a $6 per person gate fee. Also enjoy agricultural displays and contests, quilt exhibits, pony rides, animal exhibits, crafts, games and more. Located on Rte 30 in Bondville, across from the Stratton access road.

Tired of the smell of the horse barn or the noise of the midway? Looking for something a little more cultured? Try the Marlboro Music Festival, on the grounds of Marlboro College in Marlboro, Vermont, midway between Brattleboro and Wilmington. Marlboro Music is recognized as today's preeminent center for advanced musical studies. It is credited for a pivotal role in the development of chamber music in the U.S., and for training generations of musical leaders.

The festival brings together the most talented musicians in the country, some famous and some soon to be famous, for two months' practice, consultation, and performance. On weekends from July 12 to August 10 the school is opened to concert audiences. Concerts are often a sell out, as the auditorium at Marlboro College seats fewer than 700 people. For more information and how to purchase tickets, go to www.marlbormusic.org

Give the aroma of the horse barn some competition at the 13th annual Southern Vermont Garlic & Herb Festival. The festival runs August 30 & 31st from 10 am to 5 pm. Admission is $5 per person per day or a 2 day pass for $8. Join garlic-lovers from throughout the northeast as they come to sample food and crafts from 50 different vendors all made from - you guessed it - garlic and herbs! Everything from garlic ice cream to garlic jelly, pickled garlic, roasted garlic, garlic braids and, of garlic bulbs of every variety will be available for sampling and purchase, along with planting and braiding demonstrations as well as cooking demonstrations. Located just 1.5 miles west of the four corners (junction VT Routes 7 & 9) in Bennington, VT. Visit www.lovegarlic.com for more details.

And right down the road from the lodge is the Deerfield Valley Farmers' Day Fair from Aug. 23 - 26. Now in its 91st year, this is a traditional family farm fair, with a pie eating contest, ox pulls, livestock judging, and more. The fair wraps up with a demolition derby on Sunday. Fairgrounds are located on Beaver Street, 1 mile west of downtown Wilmington. For more details visit <http://www.dvfair.com>.
