News & Notes

The September meeting saw the introduction of the ski schedule for the coming season to those in attendance. Be sure to get your reservations in early and avoid being closed out. Registration forms for all major trips are again included in this issue of Slopes & Trails, and can also be downloaded from the web site. And don't forget the EPSC Winterfest—details on page 3. The club is again putting together an auction basket for the event, and any donations with a Pennsylvania / Vermont theme will be appreciated! Members should contact MaryAnn Thomas with any ideas.

The annual lodge work party is scheduled for the weekend of October 24 thru 26. This is a great opportunity to help out the club, get credits for free lodge stays, AND enjoy chef Joe Sheffers culinary wizardry! You can also check out the new roof that went on this summer.

A word of thanks goes out to Ken Wellar for taking on the task of providing meeting refreshments. The program chair position is still vacant, but as you can see from the upcoming meeting schedule below this is pretty well covered for this year. Anyone with interest in serving in this capacity is encouraged to contact the board.

Lets look forward to a snowy season!

Don't Forget... It's Time to Renew!! Still time for the early renewal rate!

WOODBIDGE LODGE WORK PARTY
OCTOBER 24 -- 26 , 2008
Our work party chef -- Joe Sheffer!

Every year, usually in October, a group of Buck Ridge members get together at our Woodbridge Lodge to prepare for winter usage. As with any home, there are always maintenance projects to do and we try to keep Woodbridge Lodge in shape as a combined work party effort. Please consider joining us this year. Many of us extend the weekend by arriving a few days early and leaving a day or two after the work party dates. You are on your own to make your own schedule. Joe Sheffer will be our chef again this year. We split the cost of all food which usually is approximately $25.00 per person. Meals are generally served starting with dinner on Friday evening through lunch on Sunday. Please send your registration / release form today!! Our partial list of projects ---

- Replace front door (or at least paint the old door)
- Install new doors on the third bathroom, and two shower rooms
- Remove old cabinet, sink, and countertop in third bathroom and replace
- Install tile floor in third bathroom to match other bathrooms and shower rooms
- Troubleshoot well pump issue and decide plan of maintenance or replacement
- Septic Tank Cleanout by local vendor / dig down to tank lid in preparation
- Receive and stack 2 cords of firewood in our now EMPTY woodshed
- Readjust new light on back of woodshed
- Change light bulbs as needed
- Replace ALL smoke alarm batteries and CO alarm batteries
- Wash all windows
- Install all storm window panels and store screens in the attic for winter.
- Fill liquid soaps, stock paper products
- Pull out trash compactor, ranges, and refrigerators, clean appliances and reset
- Replace outdoor receptacles with ground faults
- Lubricate sliding woodshed doors
- Build new set of steps full width of woodshed
- System check on low temp alarm by Mike Redin , Wilmington
- General yard clean up and weed-whacking
- Urethane ladders to upper bunks
- Patch drywall in upper bunk area of second bedroom on first floor
- Remove all mattress covers, take to Laundromat, wash, dry, return and reinstall
- General cleaning of lodge interior

FEBRUARY 22ND – FEBRUARY 28TH, 2009

TRIP DESCRIPTION:

Join Buck Ridge Ski Club on its annual ski trip to Jay Peak. The trip starts with a leisurely and relaxed train journey to northern Vermont, where complimentary shuttles will be waiting to take us to our hotel. Wake up the next morning to a great breakfast and then walk outside the door in true ski on/ski off fashion to begin 5 days of great skiing. Daily lessons are included and are a great way for all ability levels to both learn the mountain and sharpen your skills. And, there's lots of varied terrain for everyone: cruisers, steeps, and of course, an awesome glade system.

It will be Mardi Gras week, so there will be plenty of fun events each evening (music, dancing, parades) if that calls to you. Or maybe just relax in the hot tub. But whatever you do, don't miss dinner - Jay's kitchen consistently serves up surprisingly great food with enough choices to satisfy everyone.

For those who don't want to downhill ski, or just want to take a break, there are lots of options: explore Jay's network of Nordic, cross-country and snowshoe trails, shop at the Bogner outlet, visit Montreal for the day, and more. This trip is a great value, has lots for everyone, and has become a Buck Ridge tradition. Be a part of the 2009 excursion.

$765 PRICE INCLUDES:

- Round trip Amtrak train from Philadelphia 30th Street station to St. Albans, VT.
Complimentary shuttles are provided by Jay Peak to/from St. Albans train station.
- 6 nights lodging
- 6 breakfasts, 5 dinners
- 5 days of lift tickets
- 5 ski lessons

DEDUCT:

- $105 if you don't want the lift ticket package
- Seniors (65 years young) Option: deduct $105 and purchase your daily lift ticket for $17 each.
- $30 for anyone who has gone on the Jay trip at least once in the past 3 years
- $120 if you want to provide your own transportation. Note: this option is only available once Amtrak's minimum of 20 people is met.
