Saturday, March 10, 2012 our Lufthansa flight lands in Venice where we will stay in Venice's 4 star Hotel Bologna

Our Lufthansa flight leaves Philadelphia at approx. 6P.M. Friday evening March 9th. After a brief layover in Frankfurt Germany our connecting flight to Venice is schedule to land at 1PM. We'll have Venice to explore all afternoon, and night . After Breakfast Sunday morning we will still have until approx. 2PM to see Venice on a Sunday.

Then it's on to Cortina D'Ampezzo by private Motor Coach.

Buck Ridge Ski Club's long awaited European trip takes us to Cortina D'Ampezzo where we'll be skiing in the famous Dolomite Mountains. Cortina is a world-famous winter resort that rivals any other in the Alps. Encircled by massive peaks that rise nearly 9,843 feet above the village, Cortina boasts four mountain passes, has hosted the 1956 Olympics and been featured in such movies as "The Pink Panther", "Cliff Hanger" and "For Your Eyes Only" – Martinis anyone?

A Four Day Dolomiti Superski (included) offers 800 miles of pistes, 460 lifts and 457 interconnected pistes with plenty of off-piste skiing. Your single ski pass is all that's needed to discover this immense 12 valley winter carousel. Snow cover on 95% of the slopes (groomed nightly) combined with 8 hours of daily sunshine helps to ensure optimum skiing conditions at one of the world's premier ski resorts. Cortina encompasses 70 miles of runs on three separate ski complexes: Cortina (including Cristallo, Falleria and Mietres), Tofana and Lagazuoi/Cinque Torri with free shuttle buses linking the areas. The Tofana Express, a new 6-seat chairlift, takes you swiftly to the higher and more technically challenging runs, like Canalone and the famous Schuss.

Optional Skiing Excursions are Kronplatz and the Sella Ronda Tour. Kronplatz, set in the beautiful Pusteria Valley, is a paradise for intermediate and advanced skiers. A popular winter activity for intrepid skiers is "Sella Ronda" (Tour of the Passes) – going village to village circling the Sella massif utilizing a system of lifts and 28 miles of ski runs. There is also a W.W. I ski tour.

Located in Cortina is the Hotel Des Alpes a 4 star hotel with onsite restaurant. Dinner as well as breakfast daily are included.
